Digital Collections@FAU Libraries provides online access to Florida Atlantic University resources such as rare library collections, unique materials, and academic scholarship. Digitized resources include: rare books, pamphlets, photographs, maps, oral histories, and FAU scholarly works such as theses, dissertations, dance videos, recorded performances, and recitals.

BENEFITS of contributing content to Digital Collections@FAU Libraries:

- Enhances users’ audio and visual experience and enables full text keyword searching
- Optimizes search engine capability to locate FAU resources providing users with better search results
- Provides long term preservation and access

WHO May Contribute?

- FAU Faculty
- FAU Students
- FAU Administrative Units (departments, centers)
- Non-FAU community organizations in conjunction with FAU faculty or units

For more information contact: lydig@fau.edu