Florida Atlantic University Libraries

Reimagining the Library Experience

Slideshow prepared by
Carol Hixson and Patricia Koppisch
August 29, 2016
Photos by Patricia Koppisch, Carol West, and Carol Hixson
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
“The library’s spaces and the services must evolve to provide what today’s students need to be successful.”

Carol Hixson
Dean of University Libraries
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
“We need new kinds of physical and virtual spaces for students to collaborate effectively and share their creative energy.”

Carol Hixson
Dean of University Libraries
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Students Enjoying the FAU Experience in the Wimberly Library
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
“The Libraries and everyone in them are here first and foremost to help the students succeed.”

Carol Hixson
Dean of University Libraries
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

New Filtered Water Stations
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Before

After
“The library should support and inspire student scholarship and creativity.”

Carol Hixson
Dean of University Libraries
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

Students Enjoying the FAU Experience in the Wimberly Library
Wimberly Library Being Transformed
“We need colorful, comfortable, technology-rich spaces where students can study — alone or together — and create their own work.”

Carol Hixson
Dean of University Libraries
Wimberly Library Being Transformed

New Graduate Student Lounge