“The Art of the Image” is an exhibition featuring an eclectic mix of photographic images captured by Nathan Dean, an award-winning photographer and professor emeritus of Florida Atlantic University’s Charles E. Schmidt College of Science.

Dean’s images are a result of his extensive travels and are notable for their simple, clean composition and brilliant use of light and shadow. He aims to show the essence of what he sees, reduced to its simplest elements, uncluttered distraction.

“The Art of the Image” exhibition can be viewed during library hours, which are available by calling 561-297-3770 or at www.library.fau.edu/geninfo/hours.htm.
