“Besa: The Promise”
Documentary Film Screening
with Special Guest Speaker and Survivor, Johanna Neumann
Sunday, November 10 at 3 p.m.

Barry & Florence Friedberg Lifelong Learning Auditorium, FAU Boca Campus

“Besa: The Promise” is an award-winning film about the remarkable story of the Albanian men and women — almost all of them Muslim — who faced down the Nazis armed only with their traditional honor code of “besa” and saved the lives of nearly 2,000 Jews. Their stories are told through the prism of two men, one an Albanian Muslim, the other an American Jew, who join together in a profoundly emotional and unexpected quest. The documentary also features in-depth interviews with survivors and rescuers and never-before-seen archival footage as it eloquently reminds us of the power of good people to transform the way we view our world. ~ Film courtesy of JWM Productions

Special guest speaker and survivor, Johanna Gerechter Neumann, was a girl of eight when her family fled Hamburg, Germany in 1939. She spent the rest of the war sheltered in Albania by one of the families featured in this film. Today, Johanna works at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, DC.
