

Video in the Classroom: An Alexander Street Press Lunch & Learn

Florida Atlantic University Libraries and the Alexander Street Press would like to invite FAU faculty to a lunch and discussion on using video in the classroom. Those who use video in their teaching report that students are more engaged, understand concepts more quickly and retain more information, according to the National Teacher Training Institute. Join us to learn and share tips on successfully integrating video in your teaching and learn the ins and outs of the Alexander Street Press platform (<http://search.alexanderstreet.com/>).

Wednesday, Oct. 22, 2014
12-1:30 p.m.

SEFLIN Meeting Room, Wimberly Library, Room 451

We look forward to seeing you there! RSVP by Monday, Oct. 20, to Kyley Caldwell at kcaldwell@alexanderstreet.com.