'Time Flies When You're Having Fun' Exhibition Honoring Arthur Jaffe Extended at FAU Libraries

"Time Flies When You're Having Fun," an exhibition honoring Arthur Jaffe, founder and curator of the Arthur and Mata Jaffe Center, has been extended through Sunday, October 9, at FAU's Wimberly Library.

The library-wide exhibition is free and features a timeline of Jaffe's life, photographs, ephemera, and artists' books and broadsides that artists donated in honor of Jaffe's May birthday and retirement announcement. Jaffe also received the Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from FAU President Mary J. Saunders during spring commencement ceremonies. Jaffe has requested that no personal gifts be given to mark his milestones, but suggested donations to the center's education fund. The exhibition can be viewed during library hours, which are available by calling 561-297-3770 or at www.library.fau.edu/geninfo/hours.htm. For more information, contact John Cutrone at 561-297-0455 or jcutrone@fau.edu, or visit www.jaffecollection.org.
