Create your own course materials with an FAU account available free to all faculty, staff and students! See <http://www.fau.edu/owlapps> for more information.

• 12 – 1 p.m. iBOOKS AUTHOR: presented by Rachel Ross, Account Executive, Apple Education

Create your own textbooks for Mac and iPad!
See <http://www.apple.com/ibooks-author/> for more information.

Oct. 21 ~ FACULTY DISCUSSION PANEL “OPEN ACCESS: FAU FACULTY SHARE THEIR EXPERIENCES AND PERCEPTIONS”

3:30 – 5 p.m., Wimberly Library, 5th Floor

What Open Access activities have FAU faculty been engaged in? What are faculty perceptions of the OA movement? What implications does the OA movement have regarding access to academic research? Join us as we explore these topics and more in this facilitated, open-ended discussion panel, open to faculty, staff and students.

Faculty participants include:

- Professor Cheryl Arflin, College of Business, Faculty Advisor to the Undergraduate Law Journal
- Dr. Tim Lenz, College of Arts & Letters, Political Science Department
- Dr. Jim Tracy, College of Arts & Letters, School of Communication and Multimedia Studies, former editor of the Democratic Communiqué, the open access, peer-reviewed journal of the Union for Democratic Communications
- Dr. Markus Schmidmeier, College of Science, Department of Mathematical Sciences
- Facilitators: Joanne Parandjuk, Manager of the FAU Libraries’ Digital Library and Zach English, Collection Development Librarian
