

50th ANNIVERSARY

PRINTING AND THE MIND OF MAN

In 1963, the International Printing Machinery and Allied Trades Exhibition (IPEX) held an exhibition in London entitled: Printing and the Mind of Man (PMM). The PMM catalogue is considered an essential framework for many private collectors and libraries. The remarkable display of texts is a direct reflection of the hard work, skill, and creativity of letterpress printers, illustrators, and authors. To celebrate the 50th anniversary of PMM, Special Collections and Jaffe Center for Book Arts offer an exhibition showcasing the most influential texts that have greatly contributed to Western Civilization over the past 500 years since the invention of the printing press. The display features 58 historical documents from the Marvin & Sybil Weiner Spirit of America Collection.
