The festival will also showcase FAU Libraries’ Special Collections through an exhibition of rare materials from the Marvin and Sybil Weiner Collection and the Harold L. Glasser Collection. “Printing and the Mind of Man,” from the Weiner Collection features some of the most influential books of Western Civilization since the invention of the printing press. A display of materials from the Glasser Collection features historical items from World War II and unique pieces from Glasser’s 27-year tenure with the Miss Universe pageant.
