An amazing lyric tenor and composer, Cantor Leib Glantz was one of the great cantors of the “Golden Age of Hazzanut” and exerted a powerful influence on cantors that continues to this day. His son, Dr. Jerry Glantz, will discuss his recent book, which explores the extraordinary life and talent of his father. The presentation will also feature famous recordings of Cantor Glantz from FAU Libraries’ Judaica Sound Archives.

Enjoy an evening of songs and theater by Jewish composers and playwrights from Argentina.

Dr. Gloria Waldman and her theater troupe will perform excerpts from plays in translation. Vocalist/guitarist Alejandra Czarny will sing folk songs in Spanish and Yiddish that depict Argentine Jewish life.
