Upcoming Events at FAU, Boca Chamber

BOCA RATON – The following events are planned at Florida Atlantic University:

Registration is open for “Book Arts 101: Summertime,” a three and a half-hour introductory immersion course that will be taught by John Cutrone, director of the Arthur and Mata Jaffe Center for Book Arts. The course includes a 25-minute video about the Jaffe center’s collection, a presentation of artists’ books, storytelling, printing sheets of paper from wood type set by hand and bookbinding in the single signature pamphlet stitch. Cutrone, a graduate of the MFA Program in the Book Arts at the University of Alabama, is also a partner in Lake Worth’s Convivio Bookworks, a book arts studio specializing in limited edition letterpress printed books and broadsides. The course is open to all levels. It will be held Saturday, September 8 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. at FAU’s Wimberly Library on the Boca Raton campus. For more information, contact John Cutrone at 561-297-0455, or visit www.jaffecollection.org and click on the “workshops” tab.

‘Student Body Art’ Photo Exhibition. The opening reception for the exhibition is on Thursday, September 13 from 3 to 5 p.m. and the exhibition will run through Friday, December 14. Both are free and open to the public at FAU’s John D. MacArthur Campus Library Gallery, 5353 Parkside Drive, Jupiter. For more information, visit www.storiesontheskin.org, www.facebook.com/storiesontheskinatfau” or call Z. Koppsich at 561-297-2116. The exhibition features photographs of students and their tattoos by visual artist Z. Koppsich. The photos are from “Stories on the Skin: Tattoo Culture at FAU,” a long-term creative collaboration between the Arthur and Mata Jaffe Center for Book Arts at FAU’s Wimberly Library and Karen Leader, Ph.D., of FAU’s Department of Visual Arts and Art History. Koppsich, an FAU alumna, is a photographer and senior designer at the Wimberly Library.
