FAU Jaffe Center Hosts 'Pee-wee's Big Adventure' Screening

FAU's Arthur and Mata Jaffe Center for Book Arts will host a film screening of "Pee-wee's Big Adventure" on Wednesday, April 18 and Thursday, April 19 at 3 and 7 p.m. on the third floor of the Wimberly Library, 777 Glades Road, Boca Raton campus. The screening of the 1985 American adventure comedy directed by Tim Burton and starring Paul Reubens as Pee-wee Herman, is a related event for the Center's exhibition titled "POP! Moveable Books from the Arthur J. Williams Pop-Up Collection." The exhibit features entertaining pop-up or moveable books with elements that pop up, slide, twirl and change before your eyes. The exhibition is comprised of a collection of 425 pop-up and moveable books that Arthur J. Williams gifted to FAU Libraries to give students and researchers the opportunity to study the mechanics of the books. The exhibition runs through Sunday, August 12. The screening and exhibition are free and open to the public. Donations to the Jaffe Center's Education Fund are accepted. For more information, call 561-297-0485.

FAU Library Exhibits 'What Feminism Means to Me'
