Klezmer concert at FAU

Aaron Kula will conduct the 60-piece Klezmer Company Orchestra, which will be joined by vocalists Shani Glance of New York City and Daniel Cochran of West Palm Beach, in “Spirit of America: Bernstein Song Book and Music from Fantasia,” at 3 p.m. June 27, at Florida Atlantic University’s Carole and Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium in the University Center on FAU’s Boca Raton campus, 777 Glades Road.

The concert will open with Leonard Bernstein’s “Candide Overture,” followed by seven songs from his successful musicals, including “A Little Bit in Love,” “Wrong Note Rag,” “Ya Got Me,” “Maria, Tonight” and “One Hand One Heart.”

Glance, an accomplished singer, actress and songwriter, and Cochran, who is involved with the Palm Beach Opera and the Ebony Chorale, will sing solos and duets from Bernstein’s most popular Broadway musicals including “West Side Story,” “On the Town” and “Wonderful Town.”

The music of other famous composers, including Irving Berlin, Paul Dukas and Gioachino Rossini, also will be presented during the concert.

KCO violinist Randi Fishenfeld will make her annual cameo appearance with a “Stephen Foster Medley” of American folk songs.

The concert is sponsored by FAU Libraries with additional support from WXML and the University Club at FAU Foundation.

Concert tickets are $17-$38.
