Boca Raton: `Spirit of America' concert set June 28

Maestro Aaron Kula will conduct the 50-piece Klezmer Company Orchestra, which will be joined by the 40-voice Ebony Chorale of the Palm Beaches, in "Spirit of America: Gershwin & Copland," Sunday, June 28, at 3 p.m. at Florida Atlantic University's Carole and Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium in the University Center, on FAU's Boca Raton campus.

The concert will feature music by Aaron Copland and George Gershwin, two of the most important 20th century American composers. Special guests will include FAU President Frank T. Brogan, who will narrate Copland's "Lincoln Portrait" in celebration of Abraham Lincoln's 200th birthday.

Pianist Mark Galsky, host/producer of WXEL's Mid-Morning Musicale, will perform Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue."
