Who said Yiddish Musical Comedy is dead? Now you can revisit the glory days of the Lower East Side and hear the songs as they were actually sung. The recordings in this special JSA collection were produced on 78 rpm recordings between 1901 and 1922, at the height of Yiddish Theater’s popularity.