FAU Library Exhibiting "Conceptual Narrative: Mixed Media from the Chodorkoff Collection"

FAU's Wimberly Library is hosting "Conceptual Narrative: Mixed Media from the Chodorkoff Collection," an exhibition of contemporary fine art and crafts through Tuesday, January 31, 2012, on FAU's Boca Raton campus. The library-wide exhibition is free and open to the public. Dr. Bernard Chodorkoff, a retired psychoanalyst/psychiatrist, and his wife Dr. Joan Rosenmound Chodorkoff, a retired clinical psychologist, donated their art to the Wimberly Library.

The exhibition features an eclectic mix of glass, fiber, ceramics, painting, sculptures and prints from such established artists as Dale Chihuly, Ed Rossbach, William Morris and Clifford Rainey. "Sito," a 30-inch high ceramic bust that was created as a self-portrait by John Woodward is among the pieces by emerging artists featured in the exhibition. To complement the exhibition, selected artists' books from the library's Arthur and Malta Jaffe Center for Book Arts will be on display. For viewing hours, call 561-297-3770 or visit www.library.fau.edu/geninfo/hours.htm. For more information, contact berns@fau.edu or 561-297-1164.

FAU's MacArthur Campus Library Hosts "Mythica"

FAU's MacArthur Campus Library will host "Mythica," an exhibition of paintings and sculpture by California artist Cheryl Tall. Tall's art is inspired by ancient art, travel, mythology, stone carvings, Etruscan ceramics and German expressionism in paintings. The exhibition is free and will be featured through Friday, December 16 at FAU's MacArthur Campus Library Gallery, 5353 Parkside Drive, Jupiter. Library hours are Mondays through Thursdays from 8:30 a.m. to 11 p.m., Fridays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Sundays from 12:30 to 1 p.m. For more information, visit www.library.fau.edu/hpbimsh.htm or call 561-799-8530.

"Courage Takes Flight: The Life and Times of Harold Glasser" on Exhibit at FAU's Wimberly Library

"Courage Takes Flight: The Life and Times of Harold Glasser" is on exhibit in FAU's Wimberly Library through Friday, December 16. The exhibition highlights the life of Harold Glasser, a decorated World War II bombardier and former Miss Universe, Inc. President. The exhibition's timing coincides with the 70th anniversary of the United States' entry into World War II. Among the display items are historic war photographs, Glasser's bombardier's jacket, his 12 combat decorations, intriguing documents, a Miss Universe crown he designed during his 27-year tenure as president, honorary keys to cities around the world, and education records. Glasser's widow, Mamie Glasser, gifted the materials to the library.

The exhibition is free and is located in the library's special collections (Room LY261) as well as in the display cases outside on the second floor east and in the Marvin and Sydell Weiner suite on the fifth floor. Hours are 1 to 3 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and 10 a.m. to noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays. For more information, contact special collections at 561-297-2893 or lycsa@fau.edu.
