Florida Atlantic University Libraries' Special Collections and Archives is hosting "The Age of Lincoln," an exhibition of letters, pamphlets, prints and historical artifacts illustrating the Civil War era, from Thursday, February 12 through Friday, March 13, on the fifth floor of S.E. Wimberly Library at the FAU Boca Raton campus, 777 Glades Road.

The exhibition focuses on Abraham Lincoln, whose 200th birthday is being celebrated February 12, and the economic, political and social situation in America during the Civil War era.

The materials in the exhibit are from several collections: The Marvin & Sybil Weiner Spirit of America Collection of Colonial Imprints, the Arlyn Austin Katims Civil War Collection, the James A. Cross Civil War Collection, and the Rita and Harold Feigenbaum Print Collection. The exhibition's hours are Monday through Wednesday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and by appointment. Class tours are encouraged.
