Judaica Sound Archives at FAU Libraries to Host Lecture on Composer John Zorn

- WHAT: Daniel Scheide, a librarian at Florida Atlantic University Libraries, will present a lecture titled “John Zorn and the Future of Jewish Music.” Scheide will discuss how Zorn, a composer, arranger and multi-instrumentalist who has been influenced by free jazz, avant-garde, classical and hardcore punk, is challenging the perception of Jewish music.
- WHEN: Tuesday, May 29, 2007
7 to 9 p.m.
- WHERE: Florida Atlantic University
Paul C. Wimbish Wing of the S.E. Wimberly Library
Mildred & Abner Levine and Ruth & Saul Weinberger Jewish Life Center
Hillel Golden Pavilion
777 Glades Road
Boca Raton, FL 33431
- COST: Free and open to the public
- CONTACT: Judaica Sound Archives at FAU Libraries at 561-297-0080

The Judaica Sound Archives at Florida Atlantic University’s S.E. Wimberly Library on the Boca Raton campus invites you to join librarian Daniel Scheide, who will present a lecture titled “John Zorn and the Future of Jewish Music,” on Tuesday, May 29 from 7 to 9 p.m. Scheide is passionate about new and interesting music and has followed Zorn’s career for 20 years. His bachelor’s degree in composition is from Berklee College of Music and his master’s degree in library science is from the University of Illinois.
