Florida Atlantic University's John D. MacArthur Campus Library Gallery is hosting "Real-E," an exhibition reflecting on the year artist Jacklyn Brickman spent as a Realtor®. The exhibit is being presented now through Friday, August 14, at the FAU Jupiter campus, 5353 Parkside Drive.

Brickman, who resides in Royal Oak, Michigan, worked as a Realtor® in 2007, the beginning of the housing market quandary. Her exhibition features drawings made of electrical tape on reclaimed polyethylene sheeting that explore subdivision layouts, floor plans and facades. The show includes a floor installation of 300 houses that mimics a subdivision and a video titled "House of Cards" designed from leftover Realtor® business cards. Brickman's work draws from Google maps and developer websites of new communities in Jupiter.

The exhibition is free and open to the public. The library's hours are Monday through Wednesday from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m., Thursday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Sunday from 1:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.
