Klezmer Company Orchestra (KCO) kicks off its 11th year with an exciting and eclectic mix of concert events for its 2008 season!

Founded in 1997 under the direction of Aaron Kula, KCO defies classification with its unique, high-energy mix of ethnic jazz and orchestral arrangements featuring exotic melodies from around the globe. KCO core soloists are accomplished jazz and classical musicians. This popular ensemble has performed before thousands at sold-out concerts and has received critical acclaim for its unique style.

"Finding Fusion... Klezmer Company Orchestra goes beyond its name"
~ South Florida Sun-Sentinel

“A musical group reshaping the image and sound of traditional Klezmer music, adding a new flavor with each passing year”
~ South Florida Sun-Sentinel

“AARON KULA, MUSIC DIRECTOR

From Shelf to Stage and Beyond...

Searching for Music & Preserving Treasures

Maestro Kula’s mission is to revitalize, perform and preserve printed music from Florida Atlantic University Libraries extensive multicultural archival collection.

Now in a period of dynamic growth, the Music Collections are particularly interested in collecting original manuscripts and published music that are in danger of disappearing over time. We continue to search worldwide for printed music that offers a historical perspective and requires preservation.

Please consider donating your printed treasures for future generations to study and perform.

For more information contact:
Aaron Kula
Director, Music Collections & Performance
Florida Atlantic University Libraries
Phone: 561.297.3742
E-mail: akula@fau.edu

2008 Concert Series

“A musical group reshaping the image and sound of traditional Klezmer music, adding a new flavor with each passing year”
~ South Florida Sun-Sentinel

Klezmer Company Orchestra
AARON KULA: MUSIC DIRECTOR

From Shelf to Stage and Beyond...
Klezer Company Orchestra kicks off its 11th year with the release of its studio produced debut album Beyond the Tribes. This recording defies classification with its unique mix of ethnic jazz orchestrations featuring exotic melodies from around the globe. During the CD release party, KCO will perform selected tracks and answer questions from the audience.

WHERE: Carole & Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium
FAU Boca Raton

WHEN: 3 p.m.

TICKETS: $18
Admission includes the New CD!

NEW CD!

Beyond the Tribes
January 2008

Bulgars, Bongos & Blues
March 2008

KCO’s second grand concert of the year features 40 performers and exotic melodies from around the world. New orchestrations and arrangements of songs from Spain, Yemen, Hungary, Romania, Israel, Peru and America, with music by great Jewish composers including Weill, Ellstein, Lavry and Rumshinsky.

WHERE: Carole & Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium
FAU Boca Raton

WHEN: 3 p.m.

TICKETS: $25, $36 & $42, $60 premier seating

“Original Jewish Fusion music…played by the expert and spirited KCO” – Miami Herald

Spirit of America: The Concert III
June 2008

KCO celebrates America’s independence with this concert featuring a 45-piece orchestra conducted by Aaron Kula. The repertoire will include American music by composers Aaron Copland, Leonard Bernstein and Stephen Foster.

WHERE: Carole & Barry Kaye Performing Arts Auditorium
FAU Boca Raton

WHEN: 3 p.m.

TICKETS: $15 & $20, $25 premier seating

Tickets Available Now!
Call: 1.800.564.9539 or Visit: www.fauevents.com

Tickets on sale now!
Early Reservations are recommended.

1.800.564.9539
www.fauevents.com

To experience KCO visit, www.klezmercompany.com