The Jaffe Center to Host ‘The Fine Art of Pochoir’ with Paula M. Gourley

BOCA RATON, Fla. (July 16, 2013) — Florida Atlantic University’s Arthur and Mata Jaffe Center for Book Arts will host “The Fine Art of Pochoir,” a workshop with book artist Paula Marie Gourley, on Saturday, July 27 and Sunday, July 28, and again on Saturday, August 17 and Sunday, August 18, each day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Wimberly Library. Pochoir or stencil is an ancient art that was used to add color to printed and handwritten work, playing cards, fine press books and costume designs. Gourley, the Jaffe Center’s Helen M. Salzberg Artist in Residence for spring 2013, will lead participants in making a series of plates that will show classical to modern effects. Tuition is $100 for FAU students; $125 for the public; and $115 for FAU faculty, staff and students from other institutions. To register or for more information, call 561-297-0455, contact jcutrone@fau.edu or go to www.jaffecollection.org and click workshops.
