Florida Atlantic University's John D. MacArthur Campus Library Gallery is hosting "Elegant Wasteland," a photography exhibit that explores the wasteland of empty parking lots and abandoned stores, by Texas artist Karen Williams, from Monday, August 24, through Friday, October 16, on FAU's Jupiter campus, 5353 Parkside Drive. The show reflects the formal aspects of abandoned buildings, as well as nostalgia, space, isolation and waste. One of Williams' goals is to create a dialog about an awareness of the buildings in her photographs and how they fit in with today's fast paced, get it quick, get it now trends.

The exhibition is free and open to the public. The library's hours are Sunday from 12:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.; Monday through Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Fridays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Call 561-799-8530 or visit <http://www.library.fau.edu/npb/npb.htm>.
